

The Center for Health Policy (Columbia School of Nursing), in conjunction with the Center for the History and Ethics of Public Health (Mailman School of Public Health), presents:

Legal & Ethical Considerations for the Protection of Prisoners Involved in Research

Monday April 23, 3:00-5:00pm

Columbia University Mailman School of Public Health
Hess Commons, Allan Rosenfield Building
722 West 168th Street

Panelists Include:

Nancy Dubler, LLB - Director, Division of Bioethics, Montefiore Medical Center

Jack Beck, JD - Director, Prison Visiting Project, Correctional Association of NY

Lawrence O. Gostin, JD & Benjamin Berkman, JD, MPH – O'Neill Institute for National and Global Health Policy, Georgetown University Law Center

Lester Wright, MD, MPH - Chief Medical Officer, NY Department of Correctional Services

Kristine M. Gebbie, RN, DrPH, Moderator

Based upon the Institute of Medicine's recent recommendations for expanding prisoner participation in clinical research, "Ethical Considerations for Revisions to DHHS Regulations for Protection of Prisoners Involved in Research," this forum will discuss these recommendations and, more generally, the legality and ethics of medical experimentation with prisoners and other vulnerable populations.
